01. LE CHANTECLER

Hotel Negresco's flagship, two-star Michelin restaurant comes enrobed in what may be 18th-century France's entire production of fine wood paneling. Chandeliers hang above real period furniture – and yet there's nothing ponderous about Nice's best restaurant.

Open: Tuesday – Saturday 19:00-22:00h (one service)

Dress code: Jacket, long trousers and closed shoes for the Gentlemen, Classy chic for the ladies

Features: Excellent wine List

Booking: The earlier the better! Most of the time fully booked.

6 pax or more a fixed menu will be served. We are happy to supply this to you.

To ensure credit card details need to be supplied - Catalano could take care of this for you.

Delay of more than 30min will be considered as no show.

No show will be fined by 200euros per pax.

02. JAN

A chef on private yachts in Monaco then a reporter and photographer for a major magazine, the young South African, Jan Hendrik, has already had several lives. In his intimate and romantic little restaurant near the port, he cooks creative and contemporary cuisine, much to the delight of customers passing through the French Riviera.

Open: Tuesday - Saturday 18:30-22:00h and 19:30-21:45h (two services per evening)
Friday & Saturday 12:00-14:00h (one service)

Booking: The earlier the better! Most of the time fully booked.

6 pax or more a fixed menu will be served. We are happy to supply this to you.

03. LA TERRASSE

NICE PROMENADE DES ANGLAIS

Savour a creative and contemporary cuisine with Mediterranean flavours, created by our Executive Chef, for a unique culinary experience. The Chef offers an inspired cuisine, varying upon the seasons and the market produce.

Open: Monday - Sunday 12:00-22:00h (no service restriction)

Dress code: Non

Features: La Terrasse is also the perfect location to enjoy a relaxing moment thanks to a comfortable lounge corner and the discovery of an original selection of cocktails.

Booking: During high season we recommend to book at least 3-4 days prior lunch or dinner date.

For preseason bookings a notice of 24-48h shall be sufficient.

04. LA PETITE MAISON DE NICOLE

La Petite Maison has a truly unique atmosphere and style. Although the Riviera's most coveted restaurant is popular with the public, politicians and actors alike, Nicole Rubi ensures each guest enjoys the same high standard of service.

It's even written on the walls: "Everyone's famous here".

On the edge of Old Nice, a short walk from the famous Promenade des Anglais, this culinary institution serves southern specialties, with absolutely every type of regional dish available to order.

The restaurant's signature dishes are perfect when savored on the heated terrace in winter.

Open: Monday – Sunday 19:30-22:30h and 19:30-21:45h (no service restriction)
Exclusive Sunday lunch 12:30-15:30h

05. FLAVEUR

NICE JEAN MEDECIN

Enthusiastically run by three friends - two brothers in the kitchen and a friend front of house - this restaurant has plenty of character. Enjoy good, no-nonsense classic cuisine at lunchtime with a hint of the exotic. Fresh produce full of flavour is used and there is a highly original decor.

Open: Tuesday – Saturday 12:00-13:45h & 19:45-21:45h (each one service)

Dress code: Jacket, long trousers and closed shoes for the Gentlemen, Classy chic for the ladies

No show will be fined by 150 euros per pax.

06. L'ACCHIARDO

NICE OLD TOWN

This is an institution of Nice, its cooking of typical Provençale traditional bistro style, its setting representative of that cooking style, though somehow packed with enough warmth, both in the décor and ambience, to keep this place inviting, many institutions having lost that feature.

Open: Monday – Sunday 19:00-00:00h
Sunday lunch 12:00-15:00h

Dress code: Non

Features: Standout starters include the stellar King Crab Salad and the delightfully simple “Pasta e Fagioli”.

Booking: During high season a 24h delay for the reservation is preferable.
6 pax or more a fixed menu will be served. We are happy to supply this to you.

07. LE SÉJOUR CAFÉ

NICE JEAN MEDECIN

Shelves filled with books, knick-knacks and plants, paintings and photos adorning the walls: you feel as if you are in the living room of a lovely private home. And what about the charm of the market inspired and lovingly prepared cuisine? You almost wish you could move in permanently! Fresh ingredients, capably prepared: simply a good meal.

Open: Monday – Friday 12:00-14:00h and 19:00-22:00h (each one service)

Dress code: Casual

Features: Traditional South of France cuisine

Booking: During high season we recommend to book at least 2-3 days prior lunch or dinner date.
For preseason bookings a notice of 24h shall be sufficient.

08. KEISUKE MATSUSHIMA

NICE CARRE D'OR

The decor is Japanese-style minimalist but the cuisine is definitely French! Fascinated by France's gastronomy, Keisuke Matsushima reinterprets it, with the finesse of his origins and the inspiration of his times. Made with high quality ingredients (mostly regional), his interpretation wins you over.

Open: Monday – Saturday 19:30-21:30h
Tuesday – Friday 12:00-14:00h (no service restriction)
Dress code: Non
Features: Excellent vine list
Booking: The earlier the better! Most of the time fully booked.

09. LA CHEVRE D'OR

EZE VILLAGE

Perched on the vantage point of Èze, the famous Château de la Chèvre d'Or's gourmet restaurant enjoys an idyllic location, facing the azure of the sea and the sky. Meanwhile, Arnaud Faye confirms his great talent with his exceedingly subtle cuisine, which builds on the produce of the region's superb terroir.
